Why 3 years?

The entire program is divided up into three (3) years. The rule book is broken down in to three segments and each segment is covered in 1 of the 3 years initial classroom training. The case book is broken down in to segments as well to tie in with the rule book segments. These are covered in the same classroom training noted above. The USA Volleyball Academy modules are all covered over the 3 years in 2 different classroom settings each year.

What are these training courses?

There will be three training courses (Beginner, Intermediate and Advanced). These courses will be offered in the candidates First, Second and Third years, respectively. The course will be a 4-hour course to better prepare the applicant for their on-court training and provide rules/scenarios examples.

These courses are open to non-OAAP participants also for a $20 fee.

What kind of on-court training?

The on-court training will be provided at multi-day tournaments. Members of the Region Training team will provide real-match training and feedback. Feedback will not interrupt flow of the match. Post-match feedback will be given after the match has completed. Officials will NOT be compensated for training days but will have the opportunity to be compensated should they work non-training matches.

On-court training is included in the OAAP fee, but attendance is not required for participants if their schedule does not allow. Refunds will not be given for missed training opportunities.

When do I get my next certification?

While no certification is guaranteed, there will be opportunities to advance their certification each year. Within the three-year program, they will have the opportunity to receive their Regional 2 certification by the end of the program. This will require the applicant to attend most of the training sessions each year. It all depends on how much time and effort the official is willing to put towards their learning.

All upgrade opportunities are performed at MAPL Raleigh, so attendance is required at that event for any official wanting to be considered for an upgraded certification.
